THE DANIEL K. INOUYE COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAIʻI HILO
STUDENT COUNCIL CONSTITUTION

Article I: NAME

The students at the Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy (DKICP) at the University of Hawaii at Hilo shall be known collectively as the Student Body. The Student Council shall be composed of the elected Class Officers from each cohort and be the official representative body. Each class operates independently under this Constitution.

Article II: PURPOSE

The purpose of the Student Council shall be to coordinate the activities of and to represent the students in order to preserve and maintain the good name and traditions of the DKICP.

Article III: POWERS

The Student Council will have the right and power to make and enforce any rules necessary for the betterment of DKICP's student interests and activities, provided they are in accordance with university policies and respectful of individual student rights.

Article IV: MEMBERSHIP

A. Student Body

All registered students at the DKICP shall be members of the Student Body regardless of race, creed, color, age, national origin, ethnic background, gender, disability status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or religion.

B. Class Officers

Any member of the Student Body in good academic and disciplinary standing as outlined in the Student Handbook is eligible to serve on the Student Council of their respective class.

Article V: CLASS OFFICERS

Each class may consist of the following elected officers: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Activity Coordinator, and Class Liaison(s). The duties and responsibilities of the officers, duration of their office, and the manner of their election shall be designated in the Bylaws. Each class shall have a Faculty Advisor selected by the class officers at the first meeting of the second semester with the approval of the Faculty Advisor's Department Chair or designated by DKICP. In the event of resignation, removal, or vacancy of a Class Officer, the position shall be filled in accordance with procedures outlined in Article XI.

STUDENT COUNCIL CONSTITUTION
Article VI: COMMITTEES

The Class Officers may create committees that are deemed necessary. Committees may consist of any student volunteers and be chaired as designated in the Bylaws. Removal and reappointment of committee members shall be at the discretion of the Class Officers.

Article VII: ELECTIONS

Class Officers, including the Class Liaison(s), shall serve for the duration of their academic enrollment at DKICP unless otherwise removed. The Class Liaison(s) shall temporarily serve during the first semester term during the P1 year, and then be elected with the Class Officers, to serve the duration of their academic enrollment. The election procedure shall be provided in the Bylaws. Any member may resign by submission of a written resignation to the Class President and Faculty Advisor or by being placed on an extended track. An Officer may be impeached by a two-thirds vote of the Class Officers.

Article VIII: MEETINGS

1. Call to Meetings
The President may call regular monthly meetings. A majority of the Class Officers shall constitute a quorum.

2. Special Meetings
Special meetings of the Class Officers may be called to consider a special item of business by any member of the Class Officers.

Article IX: BYLAWS

The Student Council shall have the right to develop and adopt Bylaws as may be necessary for the conduct of its business. Bylaws shall not in any way conflict with the provisions of the Constitution.

Article X: AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws may be made, upon a two-thirds vote of the Class Officers, followed by a majority vote of the P1, P2, P3, and extended online (XO) cohorts.

Article XI: VACANT POSITIONS

In the event that there are no candidates for a Class Officer position(s), a second election of the vacant position(s) may take place by the second week of the semester and follow the election procedure provided in the Bylaws. If any vacant position(s) remains after the second election, the Council may reallocate responsibilities of that position to the elected Class Officers or hold another election as seen fit.
